INAPPROPRIATE SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS

The Company has become aware of inappropriate comments made on social media by one of its consultants.

The Company unreservedly apologises to the affected individuals for any insinuation that the Company was involved or condoned directly or indirectly comments referred to in the posts.

The Company, the Board and its Executive Management unequivocally re-iterate that they do not share the opinions of the consultant and the Company has terminated any further engagement with the Consultant.

The Company is highly supportive of the current leadership in South Africa and sees enormous hope under the new leadership in refocusing and recognising the importance and potential of the mining industry and the significant role it plays in the social and economic upliftment to the economy and people of the Republic of South Africa.
